ADDITIONAL LANGUAGE POLICIES & REQUEST FORM 2019-20

(Applicable for students seeking admission from LKG to Grade 9)

POLICIES

1. Legacy School offers Hindi, French and Spanish as an additional language option, and Kannada as a third language.
2. It is mandatory for every child to take an additional language from Grades 1 – 10 and a third language from Grades 1 - 5.
3. The second language option must be confirmed at the time of enrollment or entry into Grade 1.
4. In the event that the second language studied at the previous institution is not offered by Legacy School, the student will be required to opt for one of the second languages offered by Legacy. However, the student will be required to seek external additional language support to ensure that he/she achieves grade level expectation by the commencement of the new academic year (June).
5. Students, who are bi-lingual functional in either French or Spanish, will be required to opt for an additional language in which they are not proficient.
6. For the IGCSE (Grade 10) Exams, French and Spanish students will be required to take oral and listening component at the exam. Hindi Students will be required to take listening, Reading & Writing Component of the exam.
7. French and Spanish are paid electives.
8. Based upon the information shared in this form, the school may recommend an alternate additional language.
